ESCAPE IS NARROW FROM LIGHTNING

Bolt Tears Off Roof, But Young Woman Is Uninjured.

Miss Ina Reid, of 222 New Jersey aveue northwest, is today receiving congratulations of her friends because of ner escape from a bolt of lightnin which crashed through the roof of her house during the storm last evening.

Miss Reid was closing a window on the second floor about 7 o'clock when there was a blinding flash and a tremendous crash of thunder. The lightning played havoc with the roof and th rooms on the third floor but, except for a severe fright, Miss Reid was unfour large holes blown through the plaster, through which the rain fell in torrents and damaged a great deal of furniture. Miss Reid called the police at ence and they assisted her in carryin

Committee Unable to Accommodate Great Number of Applicants.

Camp Good Will, where a large part of the fresh-air work of the Summer Outings Committee of the Associated Charities is carried on, is to be enlarged. The applications have been so great during the present season that this has been definitely decided upon by the committee.

Not only the great number of applications has brought about this decision. but the absolute necessity of providing some place for the growing number of sick mothers and babies makes this necessary. Camp Good Will in the past has been able to provide accommoda-tions for 100 per week. Next Wednesday this number will be increased to

FALL OF SANTIAGO

Anniversary Celebrated by Excursion of District Camps to Marshall Hall.

Marshall Hall was captured today by the veterans of the United Spanish War Veterans and their friends, who went down the river to celebrate the return of the anniversary of the surrender of Santiago.

The celebration took place under the auspices of the Department of the District of Columbia, and all six camps were well represented. Besides patriotic speeches and music, the day was enlivened by sports of all kinds, a baseball game and a rifle match.

The rifle match was planned for teams representing the six camps for a trophy. A medal donated by E. Voight is to go to the man making the highest individual score.
